

Friday Evening Family Chapel

To wrap up camp, we're inviting the families of our campers to our final chapel on Friday evening.

We'll sing some songs, have a special camp speaker, campers will get their certificates, and we'll have you on your way before it gets late. See you then!

▶ Awana Landing: the Ideal First Camp

Excellence Camp is a new adventure at Awana Landing. Near Parry Sound, the camp will serve 16 campers (8 girls and 8 boys) per 5-day

Camp is an exciting learning adventure!

camp. Each camp session will begin on Monday morning (July 5 or 12) and conclude on Friday evening (July 9 or 16). Daily activities will include Bible lessons, team sports, swimming, crafts, and evening chapel.

Excellence Camp is also a training ground for a few select high schoolers who are learning to serve. Directed by veteran Awana missionary Dave Kinsey and his staff, Excellence Camp will always have adult supervision close at hand.

Excellence Camp, with its close camper to counselor ratio, is the ideal first camp experience.

Qualifications

To attend Excellence Camp, an Awana clubber must have an Excellence Award and be going into grade 5 in the fall.

Limited Space

A limited number of camper spaces are available.

Please indicate your first and your second choice of dates. If your first choice is filled, you will be offered your second choice.
